Institutional preparedness for NEP

1. Multidisciplinary/interdisciplinary:	Interdisciplinary higher education aims to develop boundary-crossing skills, such as interdisciplinary thinking. Uma Pandey College was established keeping global best practices in mind. Higher education is not only about gaining advanced knowledge of disciplines, but also learning more about yourself, discovering your interests, nurturing your passions, channeling your talents, challenging yourself and growing as a student, individual, and member of society. At the end of the day, the real world is complex. Phenomena are complex. You simply cannot understand it through one lens. A rounded, holistic perception is key. An inevitable outcome of looking at life and learning through a

	multidisciplinary lens is the ability to approach problems with a broader perspective.
2. Academic bank of credits (ABC):	AS per NEP guideline, the Academic Bank of Credits (ABC) have added new dimension to the New education Policy 2020. Essentially, it will create larger academic landscape for the students of this country and the abroad in this IT enabled era. In fact, this is a constituent unit of Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Kameshwarnagar, Darbhanga. So, the representatives of the various colleges are in the discussion with the stakeholders of the University on various relevant platform regarding Academic Banks of Credits (ABC). The University is about to register on Academic Banks of Credits (ABC) via National Academic Depository (NAD) in coming academic years.
3. Skill development:	College provides detailed information regarding the programmes implemented by the Government and other civic bodies in trying to develop the skills of the youth. The unit will provide an understanding of the programmes, their objectives, implementation mechanism and related issues involved in the process. It helps them to develop into healthy, responsible and productive adults in the society. Practically, life skills promotion is the key for enhancing positive and productive development in youth. Skills development has gained momentum among educators, employers and policy makers as a way to prepare young people for a successful life in the constant changing global scenario
4. Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course):	The competencies among our learners are at the top of educational outcome. Surprisingly, it was already a part of our Ancient Indian Education system. The thinking principle, Manana Shakti was given the utmost importance in the Ancient Indian Education system where primary subject of education was the mind itself. According to the ancient Indian theory of education, the training of the mind and the process of thinking, are essential for the acquisition of knowledge. The education was based on the three simple processes of Sravana, Manana and Niddhyasana. It means a learner needs to listen to the truths, to think and reflect upon what is taught so that one may live the truth and not merely explain it by word and not only that, such knowledge must result in self-realization as well.

5. Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

“Outcome-Based Education” (OBE) is the buzzword in Indian higher education today. It is being adopted at a fast pace in various colleges at the moment. OBE is considered as a giant leap forward to improve the quality of higher education, particularly technical education and help graduates compete with their global counterparts. This college, outcome-based education (OBE) formulates content around activities that leads to specific outcomes. It directly leads to increasing the proficiency of a particular skill, knowledge, or behavior of the student.

6. Distance education/online education:

This college has a center of distance education of its affiliating L N Mithila University. The students are offered Undergraduate and Postgraduate programs in approx. all humanity and social sciences disciplines. The University is already initiated centralized online classes for UG and PG courses. In this exercise the teachers from various colleges participate voluntarily.

2.2 Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organises special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Response:

Teaching the slow learners and the weaker students is a challenging task. However the slow learners should be treated same as the normal students. Some techniques need to be applied for these students. Some such techniques applied in our college are as follows:

On the basis of their performance in class based assessment, the slow learners are identified. These learners are given more time in explaining the difficult concepts. They are explained various concepts by different examples.

Slow learners are taught in small groups so that they can understand things property as the teachers come in close with them. They need extra attention of the teachers which they are able to receive in small groups.

The performance of such students is regularly reviewed and on the basis of feedback new strategy is adopted to teach them. The regular review helps in the improvement of the performance of the learners.

For Advanced learners the teachers apply a different method. They prescribe them books & related websites for further reading. They are suggested to use library and internet for further enhancement of their learning. They also get opportunity to ask questions to teachers and meet them for any doubt clearance and further discussion. Faculty members monitor progress of the students on regular basis via class tests, presentation, group discussions, etc. The data collected on these bases is analyzed and accordingly corrective measures are done on continuous basis in lectures/ tutorials/ practicals. All the departments in their regular meetings do collectively review the progress of the courses and the possible problems faced by the students.

5.4 Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

Response:

The college has not registered alumni but we organized meet regularly. The college supports and encourages its alumni to have a duty of responsibility back to their alma mater, not just as individual mentors but also in bringing their business into the fold. Ideally, this would feature not only presence at open days, seminars and panel events but increasingly, practical one-to-one or small group mentoring, preferably involving their own employers in engaging with students. This certainly happens in pockets, but not extensively enough, and it's arguably the part that needs to be cultivated the most. Of course, this approach assumes that outgoing undergraduates who have enjoyed and benefited from their overall student experience. So much so that they are inspired enough to return once their working life has begun and share their "path" with those a year or two behind them. It also assumes that the college has an efficient system to place and track down about their whereabouts when they finally leave the college. The college has a file containing the addresses details of their whereabouts.

We reframe and re- energizes the mission of alumni in way that makes previous graduates feel useful and valuable. It is simply a call to arms to involve our valuable alumni more innovatively in helping our current tranche of despondent and importantly not waste any working days.

5. CONCLUSION

Additional Information :

Our college is situated on the bank of river Gandak of north Bihar. Indeed we are empowering the weaker of the marginalized/deprived sections of the society through education. Essentially, this college has got its own opportunities and challenges in terms of infrastructure, leadership, and student progression. To overcome those issues, we are constantly in touch with higher authorities of affiliating university and civil administration as well.

Concluding Remarks :

This college is a constituent unit of L N Mithila University, Darbhanga and it caters educational needs of nearby four districts (Samastipur, Vaishali, Muzaffarpur and Darbhanga) of Bihar. Indeed these districts are in bottom of the social progress index of society. With limited resources, this college has been lighting up the life of thousands of students of this underdeveloped, a kind of malnutritioned area since its inception in 1971.

Now a days it has more girl students than boys and the girls students are educated for free.

The curriculum is framed by its affiliating university. We are continuously improving teaching-learning and evaluation system to match with urban college's environment.
